Michael Krebber Catalogue Raisonné

The Michael Krebber Catalogue Raisonné Project was started in 2017 to produce a definitive catalogue raisonné of the work of Michael Krebber (b. 1954, Cologne). Prepared by the art historian Michael Sanchez, the catalogue raisonné will be a scholarly resource that documents Krebber's work in all media, with detailed histories of ownership, exhibitions, and literature.

The first volume, currently in progress, spans from 1968 to 2000. If you own a piece by Krebber from this period, and we have not yet been in touch with you, please send us a message. All information provided will remain strictly confidential.

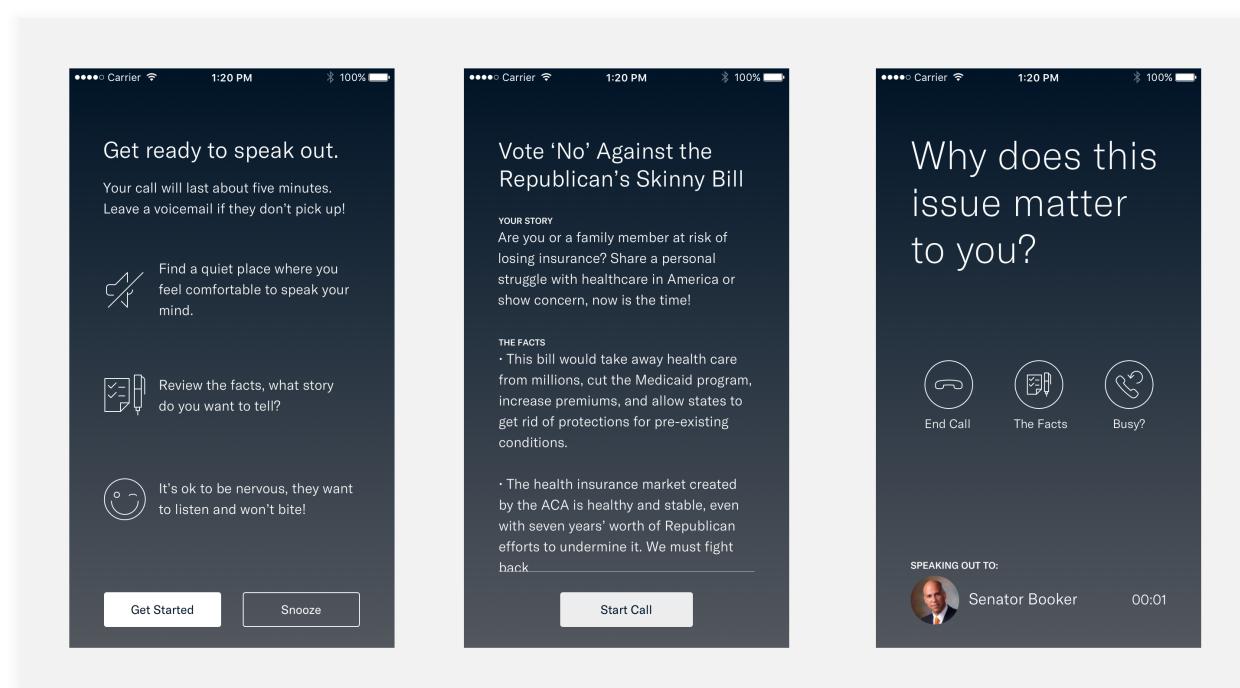

The Michael Krebber Catalogue Raisonné Project is supported by Galerie Buchholz, Cologne/Berlin/New York and Greene Naftali Gallery, New York.

To the right are three circular progress indicators: 'Outbound to Interest' (10%, 19% AVG), 'Days Between Interviews' (10, 8 AVG), and 'Candidate Reject After int.' (25%, 19 AVG).
- Candidate Reject: A table with columns for Location, Domain, and Culture. It lists candidates under 'Candidate Reject': Jose Felix (Director of Engineering), John Kensington (VP of Engineering), Robert Miller (Sr. Director, Engineering), Marcus Greenwood (Software Engineer), and Mike Robinson (CTO). Each row includes a status badge (Candidate Reject for Jose Felix, In Process for others) and engagement status (green dot for John Kensington, red dot for Mike Robinson).

Hai

Web Experience

The screenshot shows a restaurant listing for "Shizen" on the "hai" platform. The top navigation bar includes "Discover" and "Train" buttons, a search icon, a settings icon, and a notification bell. Below the header are three images: a wooden interior of a restaurant, a plate of sushi, and a dish of green vegetables. The main content area features the restaurant's logo (fork and knife icon), name "Shizen", price range "$$ • Sushi Bars", and two circular icons for sharing or saving. A "Description" section states: "Shizen is proud to be a fully vegan sushi bar and izakaya. We combine classic shojin and sushi techniques with local, seasonal ingredients to create healthy and flavorful dishes with a light footprint." It includes "Sushi" and "Vegetarian" buttons, a "See More" dropdown, and a "Because you liked" section with links to "Restaurant Eiji" (Japanese) and "Otoro Sushi" (Sushi Bars). A "But you didn't like" section lists "Ramen Underground" (Ramen) and "Chef Hung's Restaurant" (Chinese). A "Reserve a Table" section at the bottom allows users to select 2 people, choose a date (Oct 15, 2017), time (7:30 PM), and find a table. To the right, a "Your Rating" section shows five empty red stars. A map of San Francisco highlights the restaurant's location at 370 14th St, San Francisco, CA 94103.
